

Piotr Wróbel

Education:

- 2013 – completed attorney-at-law apprenticeship program in the Warsaw Bar Association and was recorded in the official register of attorneys-at-law (WA-9641)
- 2008 – completed postgraduate studies, real estate valuation, Faculty of Architecture at the Warsaw University of Ecology and Management
- 2007 – graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration at Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin (MA in law)

Career:

- since August 2020 member of Supervisory Board of Bank Ochrony Środowiska
- since November 2019 Legal Department Director – legal aid coordinator at the National Fund for Environment Protection and Water Management (NFOŚiGW)
- since February 2015 part-time member of local government appeal court in Warsaw
- Jun. 2018 – Nov.2019 Legal Section Manager – legal aid coordinator at the National Fund for Environment Protection and Water Management (NFOŚiGW)
- May 2016 – May 2018 legal counsel at the Legal Section at the National Fund for Environment Protection and Water Management (NFOŚiGW)
- Oct. 2012 – Jun. 2016 head of Section of Enfranchisement of State Legal Entities and Regulation of Legal Statuses of Roads in the Department of Adjudication in the current Ministry of Development
- Oct. 2007 – Oct. 2012 chief specialist at the Department of Adjudication at the Ministry of Infrastructure

As stated in the submitted declaration, Mr Piotr Wróbel, except for the abovementioned activities and operations:

- is not performing any activities competitive towards the Company's operations,
- is not involved in any competitive company as partners in a civil law partnership, commercial partnership, joint-stock company,
- is not involved in any legal entity performing activities competitive towards the Company's operations as a member of that entity's authorities,
- is not recorded in the Register of Insolvent Debtors, maintained under the Act on National Court Register of 20 August 1997.